

Fill in the blank with the term that is described.

- _____ 1. the value entered must be within a certain range
- _____ 2. a quick reference to speed up use of database
- _____ 3. a primary key from a table included in another table to form a relationship
- _____ 4. dependent on key
- _____ 5. produces realistic new entities
- _____ 6. collection of data in a table
- _____ 7. contains only one table
- _____ 8. produces plan for relational database system
- _____ 9. create database structures
- _____ 10. uniquely identifies each record in a table
- _____ 11. data is stored in a set of tables
- _____ 12. makes up primary key
- _____ 13. describes data items in system
- _____ 14. data items in existing system
- _____ 15. repeating groups removed within primary entities
- _____ 16. remove attributes that are only dependent on part of the primary key
- _____ 17. describes relationship between two entities
- _____ 18. identify and organise data
- _____ 19. data item in an entity
- _____ 20. list all customers with videos booked out
- _____ 21. update customer's details
- _____ 22. implement structures, functions