

Fill in the blank with the term that is described.

- _____ 1. Type of data, either bit-mapped or vector. Created using a graphics package or from a clip art library.
- _____ 2. Type of data made up of music or sound produced by a computer.
- _____ 3. Linked to the computer to display the output, using special pens to interact with the presentation.
- _____ 4. Type of data - movies.
- _____ 5. When slides are displayed one after the other, in the order they were created.
- _____ 6. A sequence of video images.
- _____ 7. These include text, graphics, audio and video.
- _____ 8. This is a ready-made blank document, with placeholders for items like text and graphics.
- _____ 9. The way in which elements of a presentation may be programmed to move around the screen.
- _____ 10. This is the slide which controls the layout of the other slides in the presentation.
- _____ 11. This is where clips may be arranged in any order, not just the order in which they were filmed.
- _____ 12. This is the name given to the effect shown on the screen when moving between slides.
- _____ 13. A collection of information held in multimedia form on the Internet.
- _____ 14. An output device used to display the output on a very large screen (interactive whiteboard).
- _____ 15. Characters or symbols displayed on the screen.
- _____ 16. An application package used to produce multimedia presentation and displays.
- _____ 17. These may be of type HTML for the web, MPEG for movies, GIF or JPEG for graphics.