

Fill in the blank with the term that is described.

1. Browse web pages

2. Presentation of information by a computer system using graphics, animation, sound and text

3. Is a wide area network spanning the globe.

4. Used for creation of web pages by entering HTML codes

5. A type of data - movies

6. A number of web pages linked together

7. Made up of data arranged in columns and rows, like a spreadsheet

8. Method of linking graphics on a web page

9. A single page of information on a web site

10. Used for creation of web pages without knowing HTML

11. URL

12. Pictures or charts

13. Method of finding a web page

14. Method of storing information in rows and columns

15. Method of storing information on a web page

16. Links between pages on a web site, activated by clicking on text, buttons, etc..

17. Programming code for web pages
